

7 Compelling Reasons to Cruise

1. Cruising provides unbeatable value for your dollars. Cruises are inclusive of accommodations, dining, entertainment, and activities.
2. Cruises have something that appeals to everyone. Your days and nights are filled with options that appeal to all tastes and styles: sightseeing, sports activities, arts and culture, relaxing by the pool or playing pool games, spa treatments, dancing, bingo, delicious cuisine, music, shows, casino, children and teen activities...
3. You can visit more than one destination on one vacation. Go to sleep in Puerto Rico and wake up in St. Thomas! Spend one day dog sledding across Godwin Glacier and another day buying Native American jewelry in Juneau. Visit Pearl Harbor at one port and fish for mahi mahi at another. Shop for shoes in Istanbul and then explore the stalactites and stalagmites of Amalfi's Emerald Grotto in Italy.
4. It's great for families! Most cruise lines have children and teen programs where they will meet other kids their age, participate in fun age-appropriate activities, and give you some time alone to engage in activities that interest you.
5. You deserve the world-class service found on cruises. With friendly and helpful staff from all over the globe, cruise lines pamper their passengers with around-the-clock service.
6. The choices of ships and itineraries are boundless. Whether you'd like a mega ship with 4,000 fellow passengers, a small ship that can get closer to exotic ports, or anything in between, there are ships that will meet your style, taste, and preference. With over 1800 ports-of-call, there is an itinerary that will satisfy you.
7. Cruising is hassle-free. Most of your expenses are pre-paid and you can book your dining reservations, spa treatments, and excursions ahead of time from your home if you prefer. When you get onboard all you have to do is enjoy yourself!
